

How do you get to know your friends and build a relationship with them?

How can you use those same activities to build a relationship with Jesus?

think about Jesus during the day? Do you learn about his life by reading the Bible? Where is your actual seat? Make an O on that seat. Which of your friends would be at the concert with you?

In our Bible story, Jesus invited the children to come forward to be close to him. What do you need to do to grow closer to Jesus? Does it matter where you sit?

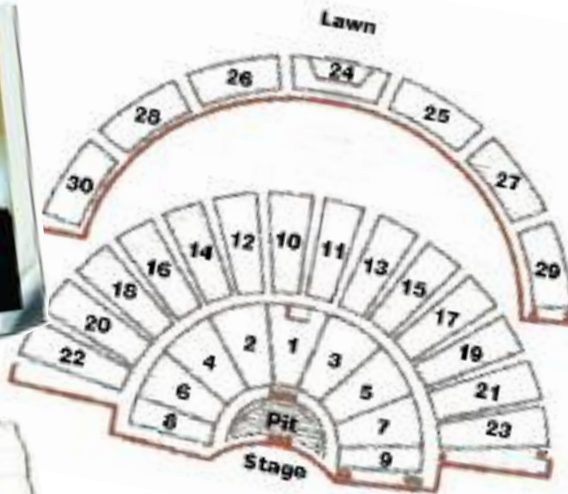

For some of us, we are comfortable sitting on the last row. That is okay. And for others, one day we are on the front row and the next day we feel like we're not even at the concert! That is okay. Relationships change. But you can trust that Jesus welcomes you to be near him, to be touched by him, even to be blessed by him!

Jesus Jam—starring your friend Jesus!

Where would you like your seat to be at the concert? Make an X on that seat. Now, think about how close you really feel to Jesus. How often do you
